

Scholarship Information

The School Choice Scholarship and Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO) programs help to make a Catholic education possible for many school families who would otherwise not be able to afford it. Below you will find information on the eligibility guidelines for the 2019-2020 school year. Please take the time to read the information carefully. Some families may have students who qualify for these wonderful programs without knowing it!

A student may be eligible for an SGO Scholarship if their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 3 of the chart on the following page.

A student may be eligible for a School Choice Scholarship through one of the following tracks:

- Continuing Choice Student Track – In the 2018-2019 school year, the student received a School Choice Scholarship and their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 1, 2 or 3 of the chart on the following page.
- Previous Choice Student Track – In a previous school year, but not the 2018-2019 school year, the student received a School Choice Scholarship and their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 1 or 2 of the chart on the following page.
- Previous SGO Award Track – In a previous school year the student received an SGO Scholarship and their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 1 or 2 of the chart on the following page.
- Special Education Track – The student is a Special Education student who has a current IEP (Individual Educational Plan) and their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 1, 2 or 3 of the chart on the following page.
- “F” Public School Track – The student would be required to attend a specific public school based on their residence that has been assigned an “F” grade and their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 1 or 2 of the chart on the following page. Note: This pathway does not require prior attendance at the school. For a list of schools assigned an “F” grade please contact the school office.
- Two-Semesters in Public School Track – The student is an incoming student to our school who for the 2018-2019 school year was enrolled two semesters in a public school and their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 1 or 2 of the chart on the following page.
- Sibling Track – The student is the sibling of a student who previously received an SGO or School Choice Scholarship and their family meets the 2019-2020 household income guidelines in column 1 or 2 on the chart on the following page.

Note-Kindergarten students at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic School are eligible to apply under the Special Education Track, the “F” Public School Track, or the Sibling Track.

Below are the 2019-2020 household income guidelines for your review to determine eligibility for a School Choice Scholarship or an SGO scholarship. How to use this chart:

1. Identify your household size
2. With your Adjusted Gross income for 2018 in mind, review the chart below. If your adjusted gross income falls at or below the amount on the chart for your household size you may be eligible for a scholarship.
